Claims 1-16 and 36-46 are presented for examination.

Applicants' amendment and response filed May 24, 2010 have been received and entered.

Accordingly, the rejection made under 35 USC 112, first paragraph (Written Description) as set forth in the previous Office action dated February 22, 2010 at pages 2-4 as applied to claims 1-35 is hereby withdrawn because of applicants' amendment of claim 1.

Accordingly, the rejection made under 35 USC 112, second paragraph as set forth in the previous Office action dated February 22, 2010 at page 7 as applied to claims 2 and 21 is hereby withdrawn because of applicants' amendment of claim 2 and the cancellation of claim 21.

Note in claim 1, line 2, the applicants have two "of". Please remove one of them.

Claims 36-46 are withdrawn from consideration as being drawn to non-elected invention (37 CFR 1.142(b)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-16 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for deterring, inhibiting or reversing stenosis, restenosis or unwanted proliferation of an artery in a human or veterinary patient with a compound of structural formula 1, does not reasonably provide enablement for preventing stenosis, restenosis or unwanted proliferation of an artery in a human or veterinary patient with a compound of structural formula 1. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims..

In this regard, the application disclosure and claims have been compared per factors indicated in the decision In re Wands, 8 USPQ2d 1400 (Fed. Cir., 1988) as to undue experimentation.

The factors include:

- 1) the quantity of experimentation necessary
- 2) the amount of direction or guidance provided
- 3) the presence or absence of working examples
- 4) the nature of the invention
- 5) the state of the art
- 6) the relative skill of those in the art
- 7) the predictability of the art and
- 8) the breadth of the claims

The instant specification fails to provide guidance that would allow the skilled artisan background sufficient to practice that instant invention without resorting to undue experimentation in view of further discussion below.

Applicants have not address the rejection made under 35 USC 112, first paragraph (Scope of Enablement) as set forth in the previous Office action dated February 22, 2010 at pages 4-7 as applied to claims 1-35. Therefore, the rejection is hereby MAINTAINED.

Claims 1-16 are not allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1-16 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Halperin et al. (5,358,959) of PTO-1449 in view of Chandy et al. (6,803,375; filing date of January 6, 2000) and further in view of Alt (6,613,083 B2), all of record, for reasons of record as set forth in the previous Office action dated February 22, 2010 at pages 7-9 as applied to claims 1-35 is hereby MAINTAINED.

Applicants' remarks regarding the Halperin et al. reference does not lead any person of skill in the art to assume that simply because certain imidazole compounds that inhibit  $\text{Ca}^{++}$  activated potassium channels were also found to have activity against restenosis or atherosclerosis are not persuasive since the Examiner is stating the imidazole compounds (same as applicants' preferred compounds of claim 1) set forth in Chandy et al. possess the same activity for the inhibition of  $\text{Ca}^{++}$  activated potassium channels. Why cannot one skilled in the art substitute the compounds of Halperin et al. with the applicants' compounds and achieve the same predictable expectation due to the compounds' structural and functional similarities in the absence of evidence to the contrary.

The rejection made under 35 USC 103(a) is adhered to.

Claims 1-16 are not allowed.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
